For the Sake of All and the Ferguson Commission

Jason Q. Purnell, PhD, MPH
Ferguson Commission, Final Meeting
LaunchCode
December 7, 2015

Report copies provided in November 2014
Expert testimony in February 2015

American Dreams and St. Louis Realities:
A Presentation to the Ferguson Commission

Jason Q. Purnell, PhD, MPH
The Brown School
Washington University

University of Missouri – St. Louis • J.C. Penney Conference Center • February 23, 2015

Direct alignment with calls to action

For the Sake of All
• Invest in high quality early childhood development
• Invest in coordinated school health programs for all students
• Help low-to-moderate income families create economic opportunities
  – CDAs
  – Accessible financial advice/services
• Invest in quality neighborhoods for all
• Faith and For the Sake of All

Ferguson Commission
• Investing in Early Childhood Education
• Schools as Centers of Health
• Create Universal Child Development Accounts
• Financial Empowerment Centers
• Enact Inclusionary Zoning Ordinances
• Use Low Income Housing Tax Credit Funds
• Engage the Faith Community in the Racial Equity Mission
Acknowledgements

Learn more at:
forthesakeofall.org

Follow us on Twitter:
@4theSakeofAll